Matrix Absence Management President Ken Cope will be featured in studio with Kathy Ireland on her syndicated broadcast, Worldwide Business with kathy ireland®, Sunday, June 14. The sponsored program airs weekly and reaches over 152 million US homes on Fox Business News and 228 million homes in 50 countries worldwide on Bloomberg International.

The segment will be archived and available for viewing on the web and on both Matrix and Reliance Standard websites following the broadcast.

“While absences are inevitable, managing the requests and claims while remaining in compliance with the various regulations can be time consuming and costly. When we heard about the work of Matrix Absence Management, we were eager to get them on the show,” said JL Haber, Vice President of Programming of Worldwide Business with kathy ireland®.

In the segment Ken and Kathy discuss employee absence related topics impacting employers nationwide including compliance, risk mitigation, health care reform and industry trends. Corresponding material shot on site at Matrix’s Phoenix headquarters drill down on key initiatives involving technology, the customer experience and heightened involvement in ADA awareness and management. CIO Gordon Smith and VP, Product Compliance Marti Cardj, Esq. are featured contributors.
